- d) Affected person rights management (processing of requests from affected persons for information, correction, deletion, restricted processing and data portability in order to fulfill the data protection rights of the affected persons)

Legal basis: Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. c GDPR
Scope of data as listed under point 2

- e) As part of the balancing of interests (e.g. for customer satisfaction surveys, direct advertising, provided that you do not object to the use of your data)

Legal basis: Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. f GDPR
Scope of data as listed under point 2

4. Who receives my data?

Within our company, the departments that need your data to fulfill our contractual and legal obligations are given access to it. The data will only be passed on to recipients outside the company if there is a legal basis for doing this. External data recipients can be:

- Freight forwarding agents for the purpose of shipping processing
- Upstream suppliers in the case of customer support
- Public bodies and institutions (e.g. tax authorities) if a legal or official obligation exists
- Order processing companies which we use (Article 28 GDPR), e.g. in the IT services area, who process your data for us in accordance with our instructions

5. How long will my data be stored?

We process and store your personal data for as long as this is necessary to fulfill our contractual and legal obligations. For example, the retention requirements in accordance with the Commercial Code (HGB) and the Revenue Code (AO) are up to 10 years.

6. Is data transferred to a third country or an international organization?

Data transfers to locations outside the European Union (so-called third countries) do not currently take place.

7. What data protection rights do I have?

Every affected person has the right to

Information in accordance with Art. 15 GDPR

Correction in accordance with Art. 16 GDPR

Deletion in accordance with Art. 17 GDPR

Restriction of processing in accordance with Art. 18 GDPR and Data portability from Art. 20 GDPR.

To exercise the aforementioned rights, you can contact the bodies mentioned under point 1 ("Who is responsible for data processing and who can I contact?").

If your personal data is processed to safeguard our legitimate interests in accordance with Article 6 Para. 1 lit. f GDPR, you can object to this processing in accordance with the legal requirements in Article 21 GDPR. Further information concerning your right to object can be found at the end of this data protection information in the "Information concerning your right to object in accordance with Article 21 GDPR".

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority (Article 77 GDPR) if you think that that your personal data is not being processed lawfully. The right to lodge a complaint exists without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy. The data protection supervisory authority responsible for our company is:

Bavarian State Office for Data Protection Supervision, Promenade 18, 91522 Ansbach, Germany.

8. Am I obliged to provide data?

Within the scope of our business relationship, you must provide the personal data that is needed to establish, implement and terminate a business relationship and fulfill the associated contractual obligations, or which we are legally obliged to collect. Without this data, we will generally not be able to conclude the contract with you, carry it out or terminate it.

9. Does automated decision-making take place in individual cases?

We do not use fully automated decision-making to establish and implement the business relationship (Art. 22 GDPR). If we use these procedures in individual cases, we will inform you separately provided that this is stipulated by law.

10. Will my data be used for profiling?

Your data will not be used for profiling. Profiling is any kind of automated processing of personal data which consists in using the data to analyze or predict certain personal aspects.

Status: March 1, 2024

Information about your right to object in accordance with Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

a) Right to object on a case-by-case basis

For reasons arising from your particular situation, you have the right to lodge an objection to the processing of personal data which affects you at any time, which is carried out on the basis of Article 6 Para. 1 lit. f of the GDPR (data processing based on a balance of interests); This also applies to any profiling based on this provision within the meaning of Article 4 No. 4 of the GDPR.

If you lodge an objection, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate reasons for the processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

b) Right to object to the processing of data for direct advertising purposes (Art. 21 Para. 2 GDPR)

We can also process your data for direct advertising within the framework of the legal provisions. You have the right to object to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purpose of such advertising at any time. This also applies to profiling, insofar as it is associated with direct advertising of this nature.

The objection can be lodged informally and should be addressed to the bodies mentioned in the data protection information under point 1 ("Who is responsible for data processing and who can I contact?") if possible.
